

Q103. As part of this agreement, Iran has promised to significantly reduce its air pollution over the next 15 years if it gets some financial assistance to develop cleaner technology. These steps, however, have costs and may increase the price of some products and raise unemployment in the short-term. Some people approve of Iran taking these steps because it will lead to better air quality in Iran and will reduce global climate change. Other people say that Iran should not have made this commitment because efforts to reduce air pollution will hurt Iran's economy and only the wealthier countries who have caused most of the climate change should be required to take such steps. To what degree do you approve or disapprove of Iran taking these steps?
